The Hespitals made a whirlwind finish, scoring all but one of their tailies in the last three innings. In the seventh the score stood 3 to 1 in favor of the visitors, but during the last half of the inning, after two were down, Lazinsk weakened and four runs crossed the plate. The Hespital boys fellowed with five in the eighth and three in the minth with one eighth and three in the ninth with one

For six innings Lazinsk, twirling for the visitors, was invincible, allowing but one safe hit. In the third inning M. Pultz received a foul tip on the M. Pulte received a foul tip en the thumb, causing a dislocation, and had to retire from the game. He was replaced by Jones, who had been at first. Lazinsk appeared afraid to put the stuff on the ball with the new catcher behind the bat, and in the last three innings the Hospital boys pounded Joe's delivery all over the grounds. Austin was hit hard and opportunely by the visitors, who outplayed and outhit the home team. H. Card at the second sack put up a sensational game outhit the home team. H. Card at the second sack put up a sensational game for the visitors, making several difficult, stops and featuring at bat with four hits in six trips to the rubber.

Lebanon started the scoring in the third when three doubles and a single netted three runs. In the sixth three more were tailled when four singles followed two errors in the infield. In the seventh Lebanon added another trie on two errors and three singles. trlo on two errors and three singles, and their last three runs were secured in the eighth on an error, a base on balls and two hits. The ragged fielding of the home team proved a big factor in the scoring of the visit-

The Hospital annexed one tally in the third when Corbett was hit by a pitched ball, took second on an error at first, third on an out, and scored on a passed ball. The Hospital boys failed to tally again until the seventh when two doubles, two singles, an error, a wild pitch and a base on balls brought in four runs. In the eighth the slaughter was continued. Three singles a pass a triple and a round singles, a pass, a triple and a round trip clout, the latter by Pickett, a new recruit of the Hospital team, brought across five runs. In the ninth Geer led off with a single, took second when Bill Austin went out, Card to O. Pultz, third when Lazinsk, who by this time was far above the clouds, dropped McGraw's pop fly, and scored with Mc-Graw on Corbett's single. On the throw to the plate Corbett made third and then stole home with the winning

HARVARD 6, YALE 5. Grimson Wins Intercellegiate Champlenship, Taking Final Game of the Harvard won the intercollegiate baseball championship by defeating Yale 6 to 5 in the final of a three-game series on Ebbets field yesterday. The crimsen bounded away to a lead of three runs in the second inning, was passed in the fourth and an inning later was two runs in the second.

later was two runs in the rear. From a soul burning show of pitching weakness misplays and here and there a timely hit injected into the giddying concoction, Harvard corralled three more runs in the seventh. Yale's pitching staff had caved in completely and Buster Brown had gone to the mound for rescue work when the bases were filled and the brilliancy of Gillee was dulled by overwork. A base on balls to Tomes forced in a run, and Young, the crimson backstop, promptly poled a two base hit to far right field, sending the tying and winning runs trickling home.

Jewett City Beats Wednesday Knights. The Jewett City All American base-ball club trimmed the Wednesday Knights of Taftville Saturday afternoon by a score of 13 to 9. The Knights trimmed the A. A. club before at Taft-ville and a game is to be arranged in the near future and the tie will be played off. The A. A. club have good reason to believe that they will give the Knights another drubbing. Morey scored 17 strikeouts and kept the nine hits well scattered.

Taftville Beats Dayville 11-9. Taftville defeated Dayville Saturday afternoon on the Taftville grounds by the score of 11 to 9 in a loosely played contest. Taftville gave Simcox poor support and was outhit by the visitors, but the home team hit the ball when hits meant runs.
